***Warning: Due to the mature and graphic content, this novel is not suitable for a younger audience***

Forgetting is hard to do. Tori McLeod survived the sadistic wrath of a madman at the cost of the love of her life. Always a survivor, she's determined to move on with her life, for her sake, and the sake of her son, even if she has to leave everything and everyone behind. Two years have passed since she lost Sebastian Chelios. He was gone, but Tori can still feel the raw magnetism pulling her toward a ghost. Relationships change and new bonds form. Budding feelings tempt Tori, but she continues to ache for Sebastian. Whispers of danger lurk around the corner and questions regarding Jose remain unanswered. Can Tori move on with her life when a dark shadow from her past revisits her? With Jose still being out there, will Tori and her son ever be truly safe?
