One in a Million (The Con-Dorks Saga) (Volume 3) Mark Finn

Life is pretty sweet for Larry Croft and his friends; he's got a good job and a beautiful girl friend who more or less "gets him;" D.J. McGuinness is the manager at a comic book store and just about to move into a new apartment, Burt Vaughn is doing well at school and in his personal life, and Fred "The Turk" Terkington is, well, still a virgin. Angry and jealous over his friends' good fortune, Turk retreats to the Internet and finds a kindred spirit in Rhonda Halsey, one of the Sisters who happens to be best friends with Holly Day and the other women in his friends' lives. Their secret online romance blossoms into a full-blown case of worship, with Rhonda suddenly on the receiving end of a whole lot of new and strange powers and abilities, and no way of knowing how to control them. Meanwhile, sinister forces are gathering as Jerry Markham plots his revenge against Larry Croft. Who will help Larry and his friends in this, their darkest hour? Mike Bretz? Jane Callow? Stercutus? It's the final Con-Dorks adventure, and it threatens to demolish the lives and homes of everyone in the city, not to mention jeopardizing their relationship status with one another. Can the Con-Dorks and the Sisters survive the crisis? About The Secret Life of Lawrence Croft "It is nothing less than Band of Brothers for the con-going set." —Jayme Lynn Blaschke, RevolutionSF Fiction Editor "Mark Finn has a way with words, and with each new story he tells, I have to set the bar higher for every other author that comes along. Finn knows how to craft a fun, engaging story that is a joy to read again and again!" —Stephen Schleicher, MajorSpoilers.com
