Do you know anyone who has suffered previously or currently suffers with believing suicide is the answer that will end his or her pain?

Sometimes heartbreak and depression can lead a person to feel as though suicide is a solution, but that is a lie from the devil. The author has been through such horrific lies, but when she cried out to the Lord, He faithfully comforted her, bringing her His hope, His love, and His promises. She learned and understood that she is worthy of being loved and wanted.

He brought her new hope and reasons to live in His love, mercy, and grace.
