Simply stated. Its General Conference weekend. I need a weekend getaway. My family needs to be there. I miss them. I blame too many people for high expectations when I'm just as guilty for pushing myself which is why I will try loving myself enough to do an experiment I'm highly uncomfortable with. I'm going to...just This once....wait until Monday to publish the next one. It's General Conference weekend. But everybody needs some good news every day to make it better. That's why i invite you to join is...but I need my babies there. Its my turn to heal and without them I will never be fully free from the emptiness. I have the right to heal as well. I love myself enough to demand to be met in the middle and they be allowed to join the club.
