Careful What You Wish For Michelle Escamilla

One simple wish can change everything... Harley Simpson has one wish—to find Prince Charming and settle down. She has a dream job and wonderful friends, but something is missing. With her thirtieth birthday looming, Harley is sure being with her hot, smooth-talking boss Ethan Prince would make her life complete. Having just landed a major client and learning she'll be working even more closely with Ethan, Harley sets out to celebrate with her friends. On her way to the bar, Harley chats with a mysterious cab driver. When the woman asks what she would wish for, Harley answers honestly—she wants Ethan. But during her night out, she meets a handsome, blue-eyed part-time bartender and full-time teacher named Matt Garner. No, he's not a CEO, but he's the sweetest guy Harley's ever met. A wish gone bad... Harley awakens the next morning in a strange house with Ethan—and their two young daughters. The wish she'd confided to the freaky fairy godmother has actually come true. As she tries to figure out what this means and if it's really what she wanted after all, Harley discovers Matt is also part of this bizarre world...He's her daughters' teacher. Harley suspects fate has gone completely haywire. Will she be able to find a way out of this suburban nightmare? Or is she destined to stay and live the life she thought she wanted in this messed up fairytale... Careful What You Wish For.
