Darkness becomes her...

Rugged, commanding, and undeniably sexy, Brandon Scott is the reason Gwen's alive, but she isn't sure about this mountain man who's mischievous yet careful with her. He drives her nuts, but keeps her smiling. Every kiss sends her reeling with desire, but every mishap makes her smack him, annoyed. Despite his brazen attitude and rough ways Brandon charms her every time he flashes that bad boy smile. He's not the type of man Gwen usually goes for, but then again she's never fallen for a werewolf. This werewolf has her hooked. And neither Gwen nor Brandon seems very concerned that she's a vampire. Vampires and werewolves don't mix.

Caught up in their sudden romance, Gwen moves into Brandon's cabin where falling in love and making love are their only priorities. But when Gwen discovers she isn't the only hiker who was saved from death, she begins to unravel a dark secret that threatens to divide them, and an ancient power called primal darkness is at its core.

A vampire amongst werewolves, Gwen investigates alone. The closer she gets to discovering the truth, the greater the rift between her and the man she loves. Brandon's keeping something from her, but the vampire who turned her isn't. Refined, inviting, and highly seductive, Christoph Barone would do anything for her and Gwen can't deny the temptation. His hands are strong, yet smooth as silk. Every touch melts her. And when he looks at her with those piercing green eyes she feels a connection so deep it takes her breath away. But isn't Brandon the one?

As primal darkness rises, the two men vie for her heart. Gwen is torn between her werewolf lover and the love of a man who's like her, a vampire. She must choose before the dark power makes the choice for her. If it does, it could mean her life.
