Being everybody's bridesmaid simply sucks. All of Carly's friends are getting married and having babies and she doesn't even have a boyfriend yet. Each time another friend gets married, it's as if the woman falls off the map. When her last single friend ties the knot, Carly is left feeling alone and a little betrayed. Her friends and family start wondering what might be wrong with her. Determined to find a solution to the problem, her mother starts setting her up with a bunch of blind dates with all the wrong guys. Each new date is worse than the previous one. Finally Carly gives up trying to find a boyfriend and decides to try to make new friends instead. That's the moment when it all starts to fall into place. It's as if all the previous men were reading from the same lame script until finally she meets the perfect guy on her own.
