The Preacher (Bachelors of the Prairie Book 3) Carré White

It will take a strong man to tame her...

Accustomed to running wild and free, Winter Maynard finds herself in a mountain town in Colorado, hiding out, while her outlaw brother ties up loose ends. Upon meeting the preacher, who kindly offers her water, she's drawn to the local clergyman, who she knows isn't who he claims to be. No man of the cloth would look that handsome in a frock coat.

Turning over a new leaf, Pastor Creed Douglas vows to atone for the sins of the past—until the moment Winter Maynard sets foot in town. The winsome blonde, dressed as a man and filthy from the road, intrigues him. Smitten, Creed struggles with his desires, torn between honor and duty. It will take a strong man to tame a woman like Winter, and he knows he's more than capable, but she's determined to fight him, running straight into disaster.
