This book is written in Korean language. Each of these stories is original, each is by a noted author for young adults, and each honestly portrays its subject and theme--growing up gay or lesbian, or with gay or lesbian parents or friends. For the first-ever anthology of YA fiction devoted to lesbian and gay themes, Bauer (On My Honor) has assembled original stories by a stellar list of popular children's and YA authors, among them M. E. Kerr, Nancy Garden, William Sleator, Jane Yolen, C. S. Adler and Bruce Coville. With subjects ranging from first love to coming out, self-discovery to homophobia, the collection offers an eclectic mix of voices. Newbery winner Lois Lowry, for example, contributes "Holding," a poignant tale of a high school student who confides in his best friend after the death of his gay father's lover, while Francesca Lia Block weighs in with the wonderfully quirky "Winnie and Teddy," in which a teenager comes out to his girlfriend during a momentous road trip to San Francisco. Perhaps the book's most powerful moments are provided by Jacqueline Woodson's shimmering "Slipping Away," a painful look at one girl's discovery that there are some tests that a friendship simply cannot withstand; and Gregory Maguire's "The Honorary Shepherds," which deftly employs the language of a film treatment to describe two mixed-race students who collaborate on a school video project. Honest, well-written and true to life, these stories will do much to address the gap in gay literature for teens. Part of the proceeds from the book will be donated to Parents and Friends of Lesbians and Gays.

Is it you who having spare time and then spend it whole day by simply watching television programs or just laying on the bed? Do you need something new? This Am I Blue? Coming out from the Silence (Korean Edition) can be the solution, oh how comes? A fresh book you know. You are and so out of date, spending your extra time by reading in this completely new era is common not a geek activity. So what these books have than the others?

Betty Brown:

As a college student exactly feel bored for you to reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library or even make summary for some book, they are complained. Just little students that has reading's heart and soul or real their pastime. They just do what the professor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring and can't see colorful pictures on there. Yeah, it is for being complicated. Book is very important for you personally. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever we want. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Am I Blue? Coming out from the Silence (Korean Edition) can make you sense more interested to read.
