La iluminada muerte de Marco Aurelio Mancipe (Spanish Edition) Wilson Rogelio Enciso
FINALISTA - IV CONCURSO INTERNACIONAL DE NOVELA CONTACTO LATINO - El abogado Villarte y el curandero Guarerá fraguan una estrategia para apoderarse del patrimonio del iletrado gamonal Marco Aurelio Mancipe cuando éste, afectado por una sensación de muerte, acude al despacho del jurisconsulto para hacer su testamento. Además de hacerle consumir unos pútridos brebajes, envían a su pueblo a los temibles “Servidores de la Iglesia de Dios”, quienes, basándose en la fe y en augurios subcontinentales, no solo hacen que el pueblo acuda al “Templo de Asistencia Espiritual Gratuita” en donde se les alela, sino que tejen una filigrana de rumores sociales que genera anodinos e interminables conflictos. También narra las historias de los cinco hijos de Marco Aurelio, procreados bajo “contrato” con su díscola esposa, así como inverosímiles situaciones vernáculas del país, como la inoculación de enfermedades masivas, con la concatenada aparición de adictivos brebajes sanadores fabricados por el curandero y sus hijos, originándose una supra rentable multinacional farmacéutica alternativa.
