Grace Through the Ages™ is a daily devotional that will illuminate one portion of each day's Bible study, whether from the Old or New Testament, or the Psalms or Proverbs. The goal is to see God's kindness and grace in a multitude of places and to provoke thought and meditative reflection on that day's Bible passage. It is more than just a commentary on a one year Bible, but a means to better understand and appreciate how God's words reveal the depths of his heart and attitude toward his children. This edition is designed to provide you with daily devotionals from both the Old and New Testaments and can either be read alone or in conjunction with a daily Bible reading. A second e-book edition includes a full one year daily NET Bible readings.
