My name is Harmony Forester, this is a story of my trials, errors, and finding love in a life tucked away from the real world and nestled in nature. Life hasn't always been easy and learning how to survive in off the grid living made me a strong and independent woman. I am using all that I have learned and passing it onto my three beautiful daughters. Through my struggles and mistakes, I had hoped that I was doing my very best to protect my daughters and I from the hassles of what people go through in the real world. But, the necessities to survive this life of ours left me no choice but to allow a little of that real world into our lives. Doing this brought in characters both good and bad and we had to learn to define which was which. I was raised to love people and to always look for the good in them, but there are some that live and breathe the evil that they truly are and this is where our special talents come in and show us or should I say reveal the evil of some and the golden hearts of others. Wicca religion has been a part of my family for centuries, but I began learning the craft when I was twelve years old, I wasn't born into it like my mother had been. But everyone has their own special natural abilities. Some choose to recognize this while others just tone it out, the reason being is that there are so many that will believe that anything different is evil or the devils workings. Personally I can't see where having love for others is evil or helping others to be evil. Never have I been taught to cause any harm to another living thing, at least not by magic. Love is painful and betrayal of the heart is devastating. I have had my experiences and they all were bad. The only good thing that came out of my horrible experiences are my three daughters. I tried to keep them safe and protected from falling in love because I didn't want them to go through what I had. But love will find its way, not only for my daughters but also for me. But it comes at a price. Welcome to my magical world in nature. I hope that you find my story just as delightful as I have lived it. Mix a little bit of love, passions, and pleasures and the forest that surrounds us comes alive with Natures Desires.
