The Indo-European Languages (Routledge Language Family Series)

The Indo-European Languages presents a comprehensive survey of the individual languages and language clusters within this language family.

With over four hundred languages and dialects and almost three billion native speakers, the Indo-European language family is the largest of the recognized language groups and includes most of the major current languages of Europe, the Iranian plateau and the Indian subcontinent.

Written by an international team of experts, this comprehensive, single-volume tome presents in depth discussions of the historical development and specialized linguistic features of the Indo-European languages.

This unique resource remains the ideal reference for advanced undergraduate and postgraduate students of Indo-European linguistics and languages. It will be of interest to researchers and anyone with an interest in historical linguistics, linguistic anthropology and language development.
