Going Home: Book Three in the Norah's Children Trilogy Ann O'Farrell

For three generations the fortunes of Norah's children have ebbed and flowed. World War II has come to an end. The extended and disparate Kellys adjust to a peacetime that is not all that was promised. Pierce, Mary, Colm, Sheelagh, and Michael continue to forge their hard won connections, even when harmony is difficult to find. This is the third and final book in the saga of Norah's children. It follows the five siblings into marriage and parenthood, tragedy and triumph. Heart-warming and heart-wrenching events strengthen a powerful family bond that neither time nor distance can break.
