A Bag Lady in the Throne Room of God: Unburdening Your Soul from a Rural American Perspective Stacey Brown

What do a bag lady, a herd of buffalo, a mother of two, a horse, and a dog have in common? They are all part of Stacey Brown's real-life experience as described in her book, A Bag Lady in the Throne Room of God. Her story is an honest, heartfelt, and sometimes tear-filled account of one woman's struggle with her burdens, and her endeavor to become more by carrying less. Stacey uses an allegorical bag lady and her cart to describe a simple yet often allusive path to forgiveness and freedom. This easy read is packed with vivid scenes set in rural Colorado and poignant admissions of failings we can all relate to. So, what's in your cart?
