Three years before, Selina's brief and disastrous marriage to Ashley Dent had ended in divorce. Now he had turned up and was pressuring her to marry him again. "If you thought I'd gone out of your life for good, you were wrong," he informed her menacingly. "I don't give up anything without a struggle." Circumstances had changed and Selina was forced to consider his proposal. She had never stopped loving him--but could she overcome the terrible fear that had ruined her marriage the first time?
