Cathedral of Sorrow

Sorrow's Cathedral spreads this arch of ash
And glass-stained glaze of gloom: the refractions
Diminish like beams of pure light, scatter
Moonbeams over the drained city. Sorrow
Clutters like small children in each lush nook
And stairstone, slips beyond the hard clutch
Of propriety's tethered containments,
Loosen in every alley, on each stage
Along the Avenues. A crane mouths its Wide silver teeth over the offering - -
Wafer of steel, hollow cross of sudden
Crucifixion: the gray nails bite along
The memory of skin, evaporates
In the angel's share of nothing. A light
Strains the darkness, opens the green bowels
Of living with death's firm seated blade.
