She temporarily lost herself in rapture with her pupils rolled inward in total euphoria. Comment est ma chatte? The aforementioned excerpts only sum up a few sensual sensation delineated in this riveting romance novel. As depicted on the front cover, the profile of the sultress is none other than that of Aria Sinclair, a hot-blooded and free-spirited supreme beauty - no, wait a minute, a super banging hot marketing executive and an entrepreneur from New York City. She finds herself enthralled with Vincent Fowler, a tall and cool drink of water with a distinctive larger than life presence and characteristics typical of an alpha male endowed with prominence and eminence, enticing thirsty women into lustful salivation. Ironically, raised by his father in Sullivan County's Monticello, New York, Vincent, from childhood in insipidity of character, inadvertently assimilates his father's principles of misogyny. This pervades his life, making him treat any woman he meets with suspicion and prejudice. Cold hearted and cynical, the wealthy architect turned real estate mogul lives for his work and presents an icy persona that is bone-chilling and intense enough to put hell out of business. Despite his apathy, Aria embarks on a relationship with him but soon discovers that her, once, sizzling life may never be the same again with Vincent Fowler taking center stage in it. Intriguing chain of events, thereafter, ensue as the ice prince attempts to turn the warm hearted beauty queen into an ice queen. Eventually, Aria's quest for rapture unravels as her relationship with Vincent endures some serious nerve-racking challenges. The status quo may lift the distrust embedded in Vincent's frozen psyche - or it may dissolve their connection forever, leaving one of them in a lover's remorse and the other in a myriad of torrid and sensational sexcapades of epic proportions.
