The Naked Mind

Sheldon F. Gottlieb

The Naked Mind Sheldon F. Gottlieb

These fascinatingly unique insights into society derive from the personal experiences of a professional educator, scientist and committed social-political activist. The author engages in a personal conversation with the reader as he details his experiences involving the devastating influence of various ideologies on modern concepts of education, freedom, religion, science and medicine in the United States. His "no holds barred" accounts coupled with his clarity and directness of expression are bound to engage or enrage readers, depending on their world outlook. Open the book to read any stand-alone chapter.

The author develops the concept of the Goebbels Award to be given to media personnel, statespeople and countries for their role in the dissemination of hate and discusses his nominees for this infamous honor.

The Naked Mind covers diverse topics from beliefs to facts to treating multiple sclerosis, from anti-Semitism to the "Greatest Generation" to the Boston Pops to Bobby Knight to the NBA to the Goebbels Award, from the trial of Jesus to Edith Stein and finding the reasons for her conversion, from religion to secular humanism to creationism to evolution to a modern K-12 curriculum, from individuality to freedom, from second amendment rights to terrorism, from papal pronouncements to Galileo to replacement theology to human sexuality, and much more.
