The Principal's Leadership Sourcebook: Practices, Tools, and Strategies for Building a Thriving School Community Evan Robb

A principal who is an effective leader is the difference between a successful, thriving school and a failing school. Evan Robb is such an effective leader, and in this resource he shares his no-fail strategies for approaching budgets, instruction, community relations, school safety, and much more. He explains how he plans the first days and weeks of school so the entire year is a smooth one; makes the most of faculty, team, and department meetings; and successfully builds effective relationships with parents and the community. An inspirational and practical sourcebook that will help both new and veteran principals. For use with Grades 4-12.
