The primary goal of this book is to let my children and grandchildren know about me and my life. Who the hell would have thought I'd be a great grandfather now. Anyway, it is to let them know about my life in general. Often I would be driving along the highway, when suddenly a memory would flash through my brain and I would scribble it down. Unfortunately, sometimes while I was attempting to find a piece of paper or a pencil to jot down the thought, it would quite often quickly fade and once again retreat back into the brain where it filed itself as "forgotten!" The memories contained within are not written in any organized manner: they are, in fact, somewhat...SCATTERED.
