Kelly LeBlanc, a magazine Editor at Crescent City Publishing is at the top of her game in her career while her personal life is in shambles. When it comes to career choices, Kelly always succeeds like a soaring eagle but when it comes to matters of the heart, she fails terribly. Brad, a charismatic Jazz musician at a local club in the French Quarters, becomes Kelly's favorite obsession. From the moment Kelly lays eyes upon Brad, it is love at first sight and conquering Brad's heart becomes her newest conquest. Problem is, Brad has a bad habit of not playing by the rules. He's content with making them up as he goes, in the love and lust game. Kelly grows tired of Brad's nonchalant disposition and stops seeing Brad with her heart and starts to see him with her eyes. Oh boy, do the tables begin to turn. Kelly's mind is made up but her heart has its own plans. Her heart chooses a man her mind doesn't approve of and because of that, her mind and heart stays at war. Kelly learns, love doesn't always come wrapped up into a pretty little gift box, it can be messy. Kelly's obsession with love is Brad's greatest weapon. The troubles with love sends Kelly on an emotional roller-coaster. One she's eager to jump off of but just doesn't know how. The turbulence of love makes Kelly crash and burn. Pride and love can't live in the same heart; one will surely die. Which one will Kelly let win?
