Los pastores de la noche (Spanish Edition) Jorge Amado

¿Quién cuida las noches de Bahía para que la ciudad no pierda su curso?

“Apacentábamos la noche como si fuese un rebaño de muchachas, y la conducíamos a los puertos de la aurora con nuestros cayados de aguardiente, nuestros toscos bastones de carcajadas”. Así empieza Los pastores de la noche, un libro exuberante que vuelve a recordarnos las leyes del placer que rigen la naturaleza humana.

Los entrañables personajes de esta novela – desde el capitán Martim, desgraciado en su matrimonio, hasta Tibéria, la sabia patrona del burdel más prestigioso del lugar, sin olvidar a Beatriz, la célebre echadora de cartas— viven y respiran las estrechas calles de la ciudad más fascinante de Brasil, San Salvador de Bahía, y hacen buenas las palabras del propio Amado: “Cuento cosas que pasaron de verdad. Quien no quiera oír, que se largue”.

Entre delirios de amor, aullidos de pasión y largas charlas delante de un buen vino, los hombres y mujeres de Amado celebran la fragilidad de los seres humanos, que se reconocen en la imperfección más absoluta y tierna.
