A Clean Inspirational Romance Story

Sylvia King is leaving behind the familiar life she has led in her small Amish community. After the death of her sister her childhood home seems to smother her. She finds escape in the form of an ad in the newspaper that asks for a mail-order bride. After a few months of correspondence she is headed for a new life in Texas.

Vincent McCullough wasn't looking for a wife. He decided when his fiancé died from a chronic illness that love simply wasn't for him, but when he finds out that his mother made it a condition in her will that he be married by his thirtieth birthday in order to gain his inheritance he finds himself with no choice but to find himself a bride.

Will Sylvia be able to adjust to a new life outside of her Amish community? Will she and Vincent be able to heal the scars on each other's hearts?
