Building A Marriage that Glorifies God Dr Glenice Davis- Glover, Rev. Ronnie S. Glover

We believe that in order to have a marriage that glorifies God, there must first be two individuals with a life dedicated to the purpose of glorifying God. Glorifying God requires a soul who is willing to deny him/herself in order to please God. Unfortunately, far too often, there is a self-centeredness...a selfishness about our nature outside of Christ. However, in order to live a life that glorifies God our lives must be “God-centered”... “self-less”. It isn't until both marriage partners have made this level of commitment to Christ (as individuals first), that your marriage can truly glorify God. Marriage was created by God for His glory; therefore, apart from God, marriage cannot glorify Him. God must live in the midst of the marriage in order for it to bring Him glory. He can only live in the midst of the marriage when He lives (within) the marriage partners. If both marriage partners are committed to pleasing Christ, then your marriage has the tools needed in order to build a marriage that glorifies God.
