How do you get the most from your German Shepherd companion? You may not know it, but German Shepherds, bred to be working caretakers and fierce defenders, have become the second most common breed in the U.S., and for good reason. This book will teach you everything you need to know to find a family pet with the right personality, instincts, and qualities for your household. You'll learn to avoid potential pitfalls. Best of all, you'll learn to properly train them so you both have a fun, rewarding and loving relationship with each other that will last its entire life.

Here is a preview of what you'll learn:
