One summer. One cabin on a lake. Four thirtysomething sisters. Anything can and does happen.

One Amazon Reviewer Praises...

“It brought back memories of summers past as well as memories of relationships. It was delightful. I recommend this book to others who enjoy contemporary fiction and enjoy the nostalgic feeling you get when the author is writing about ‘your’ life.”

Overview:

Imagine spending an entire summer in a cabin on a lake - simply because you can.

That’s exactly what Samantha McGreggor, a thirtysomething eco-journalist, does in SUMMER OF FIREFLY MEMORIES. She trades Arizona’s summer heat for Minnesota’s cool lake breezes by spending her summer at the same resort her family used to go to when she was young.

Her summer agenda - relaxation, beach reads, soul-searching, bonding with her three grown sisters.

Her concerns - she and her sisters haven’t been back to the resort since their parents’ death twenty years ago when they were all practically teenagers, and, well, they tend to act like emotional teenagers when they’re all together.

Her summer reality – fun in the sun, secrets, sibling rivalries, lost memories, new love, hope.

What readers are saying about SUMMER OF FIREFLY MEMORIES...

“These sisters’ Firefly Memories brought back some of my own.”

“Brought back so many memories of when I was a child and vacations with all the family.”

“It brought back wonderful childhood memories.”

If you enjoy feeling nostalgic any time of the year, then you'll enjoy SUMMER OF FIREFLY MEMORIES!
