She looked at him, startled, which only caused him to chuckle more. She could feel that now familiar thrill running through her again, and dampness started to gather between her legs as she realized what it was finally. Desire. That's it. She had desire. She was attracted to him, and it was something that Jere seemed to know all too well. That's when he picked her up, and he threw her to the bed which somehow seemed to feel bigger now. She lay on her back, exposed to him as her breathing became ragged. Asha didn't try to rationalize anything any further. She didn't want to.

“Get undressed.” Jere said, and it was a command.

She obeyed, slipping the gown over her head and onto the floor between them. He was already unbuckling his pants, and the light that filtered into the room was gone now. All that was left was the faint blue glow that radiated from him as he moved closer to her. She never thought she'd be with a Djinn. She certainly never thought it'd feel so right as he took her in his arms.

Asha clung to him as he positioned himself at her entrance, pushing in as she cried out. Her eyes fluttered closed, and her breathing became a little more ragged as he filled her completely. She moaned a little louder, shaking her head as he she started to move back against him.

“Mine.” He leaned down to growl in her ear as she wrapped her legs around hm. She cried out, as they moved as one, and it wasn't long before she was crashing over the edge into that pleasurable oblivion. She gasped as she looked at him, and he leaned down to kiss down her jaw. He placed soft, nipping kisses down her neck to the hollow where his teeth sunk in. pain and pleasure mixed together.
