What's Your Problem? Discovering God's Greatness in the Midst of Your Storms Emily Edwards

We all have problems and trials. There's no escaping them. But should we try to avoid them? Pain is part of God's maturing process. When our lives run smoothly, we don't mature as quickly emotionally and spiritually. Every trial we face has a purpose designed to give us great hope and strength in going forward. What's Your Problem? Discovering God's Greatness in the Midst of Your Storms offers biblical insights to encourage you to focus on God and not on the trial. As you concentrate on God's character and His promises, He will guide you to the light at the end of the tunnel regardless of the problems you face. In these pages, you will read stories of victory from real people. After reading what God did for them through their trials, you won't just tolerate your difficult circumstances. You will experience hope, peace, and victory through them.
