The daily routine and stress was affecting their marriage and they were slowly becoming two strangers living in the same house. This made it possible for another woman to come in between them. After that difficult moment, the wife realized that she wasn't angry because he slept with another woman. What hurt her the most was the fact that he wasn't honest to her. They both decide that monogamy is not for them. This opens the gate to a series of hot affairs filled with lust and excitement. Discover if their love is strong enough to survive.

“The assistant's name was Kathy. She could not believe her luck when she was hired by the sexiest man she ever met. Ever since she started her new job, she preferred to stay single. This was not because of lack of time. Her heart belonged to her boss. She knew Liam was married but this was not a problem for her. Kathy saw this as a challenge. Liam was very in love with his wife and he talked about her to anyone who was willing to listen. Kathy knew it was not going to be an easy task to seduce him. She started by acting as his friend and listening to his problems. He felt guilty for working so many hours. Liam was also scared that his marriage was in trouble because of this. Kathy pretended that she cared for him and she earned his trust. Before he knew it, they ended up having sex. This meant nothing for him. The only reason it happened was because he had a little too much to drink after a business meeting. “
