The Square Mile James D Hook

The debut novel from winemaker James Hook. PAUL, is a new grad winemaker, stable and reliable, working out his career. He gets crushes from afar but stays safe conducting love affairs in his head. That's about to change after he finds 'The One'. She is beautiful, she is mysterious, but can fantasy match with reality? JAY, his writer friend and rent dodging housemate, keeps his emotions inside hiding behind the mask of a modern dandy. He is fast becoming famous but behind closed doors his troubles are spiraling out of control. To what lengths will he go to get published? How long can he keep up his act? Together they are best friends and a great team but can that survive? What happens as boys fall into the gap between adolescent ideals and adult realities? Throw in drugs, obsession and music, then crowd them into the pubs and indie clubs of late night Adelaide and it was always going to be dramatic.
