'What Becomes of the Brokenhearted' is the compelling and explosive sequel to 'Too Good to be Forgotten'. Captain Ella Harris' hopes of a return to normality are shattered when she is re-instated as the Casualty Visiting Officer for the bereaved family of Lance Corporal Bradley Craig.

As Bradley's mother, father, grandmother and step-father recall how their lives became entwined, Ella struggles with the burden of their secrets. Meanwhile his best friend faces a private battle against his own demons.

Ella is certain that the discovery of Bradley's last will and testament will give her the closure she craves and bring comfort to his loved ones. Unfortunately she has been ordered not to pursue the document or to contact Bradley's grieving fiancée, Suzanne.

Disobeying these orders would, once again, put Ella's career and marriage in jeopardy. Is securing Bradley's family's happiness worth forfeiting her own?

Will Dinger's mental anguish end in further heartache?
