James Eugene Robinson

Prodigal Song: A Memoir James Eugene Robinson

A searching and honest memoir of one man's life—a journey that would take him from idyllic small town childhood, down the road of a family torn by emotional illness, to the rock-and-roll nightclubs of Los Angeles, to the dark alleys of drug addiction, and finally back again. If you've ever wondered how God's voice might have been softly whispering to you throughout your own life, come travel back in time as a modern-day prodigal son attempts to find his lonely way back home...only to discover that Someone's been with him every step of the way.
